

Australia's Mocrew Raises Money and Awareness for Men's Health Issues

November 2009

Some members of the Ingram Micro Australia team decided to put down their razors for a month to participate in the country's 6th annual "Movember" campaign to raise money and awareness for men's health issues.

Eighteen associates, led by Jay Miley, vice president and managing director, Ingram Micro Australia and New Zealand, formed the Ingram Micro Mocrew and let their moustaches grow throughout November.

"Nearly 3,000 men die of prostate cancer each year in Australia and one in eight men will suffer from depression in their lifetime – many of whom don't seek help," said Jay. "Facts like these convinced me to get involved and do my part to raise funds and awareness for these worthy causes."

Thanks to Jay and his Mocrew (including a mo-less team assistant Amy Low), raised more than AUD $3,000 for the Prostate Cancer Foundation and Beyond Blue, the national depression initiative.
